

Teeth for wood grinders

Teeth for wood grinders

for Jenz

tooth with carbide hardfacing

teeth with solid tungsten carbide

hammer with extremely aggressive carbide layout

holder for tooth and blade system

blade available in different grades

standard clamping wedge

clamping wedge with additional wear protection

The right tooth for all applications:

BFS513-P

KingKong-Tools standard tooth with carbide hardfacing. Special tungsten grit powered by King Grit™.

Recommended application:

- waste wood
- contaminated material

BFS532

KingKong-Tools standard hammer with 4 solid tungsten carbide tips.

Recommended application:

- stumps and logs
- abrasive applications

BFS561

KingKong-Tools heavy-duty tooth with 4 tungsten carbide tips plus additional carbide protection. Primarily recommended in very abrasive applications.

Recommended application:

- waste wood
- logs
- splitting action

Special recommendation:

BFS410-C

KingKong-Tools standard hammer with 3 solid tungsten carbide tips and 2 additional carbide rippers in between for very aggressive cutting action.

Recommended application:

- composting
- soil & sand contaminated material

Hotline
+49 (0)7422/270099-100